Stoves Stoves Stoves

The time will soon be here for you to begin to think about a Stove for Winter, and when you do understand we can supply your every want in that line. We have the largest stock of Stoves ever shipped into the City of Paris, and feel sure we have anything that you may want.

RADIANT HOMES.

Remember we are sole agents in Paris for this celebrated Stove. Undoubtedly the greatest piece of goods ever put on the market. If you don't know about it ask your neighbor, they will tell you.

RANGES.

We are also agents for the great Majestic Steel Range. It has no equal as a high-class Range; also Born Steel Range, and others equally good. We have exclusive sale of the O. K. line of Cook Stoves. Every one guaranteed. Don't buy a Cook Stove until you see them.

FENCING.

You may also want to do some Fencing. We have a large stock of the

in all sizes. This is a cheaper and better fence than any other you can build. Come in and get our prices and compare them with others and be convinced.

LIVE STOCK, CROP, ETC.

—One Alabama cotton planter sold his crop this year for about $100,000.

—Jos. A. Wilson sold his crop of 20,000 pounds of tobacco, to Clarence Lebus & Bro., at 12½ cent per pound.

—George W. Wilder sold to George Minton, of Louisville, a thoroughbred filly by G. W. Johnson, dam of Fallsetto, for $300.

—On Tuesday, Horace W. Wilson was elected secretary of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association, at Lexington.

—In Harrison county twenty crops of tobacco, aggregating 175,000 pounds were sold at prices ranging from 8¼ to 13 cts., an average of about ten cents.

—Maysville Ledger: Andrew Howard sold to Sandford Carpenter, of Bourbon, one pair or mules for $400; one pair for $350 and one single mule for $160.

—W. F. Turner sold to the Continental, 12,000 pounds of tobacco, at 10 cents and 200 pounds at 4 cents; Harry Holt and Roy Turner sold to same party, their crops at 10 cents straight.

—At Hutchinson, James Gregg sold a pair of aged mules to Gentry Bros., of Lexington, for $295. John Steele sold to McKenna, of Lexington, 40 fat hogs, average 225 pounds, at $4.75.

—Very little of the hemp crop has been broken out yet, but the recent freezing and thawing will cause the lint to separate easily from the stalk. As soon as the weather permits the crop will be broken out rapidly.—Winchester Democrat.

—Forty years ago the farmers owned 55 per cent. of the wealth of this country, but such has been the advance of manufacturing and railroad building that they now own but 22 per cent. though there has been no decline in agricultural values.
